Call to Worship

From Psalm 90

Lord, you have been our dwelling place in all generations.
Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever you had formed the earth and the world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God.

You turn us back to dust and say, "Turn back, you mortals."
For a thousand years in your sight are like yesterday when it is past, or like a watch in the night.

You sweep them away; they are like a dream,
Like grass that is renewed in the morning;

In the morning it flourishes and is renewed; in the evening
it fades and withers.

Satisfy us in the morning with your steadfast love,
So that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

Let us worship God.

O God, Our Help in Ages Past

Prayer of the Day

The work of our hands are gifts of your mercy, O God, and everything we have is a sign of your love. If we have strength, it is because you uplift us; when we have joy, it is on account of your grace. Your call to obedience is for us a call to love. With Christ to intercede, accept now our worship. May it be worthy of the love and care you show us. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever.
Amen.

Choral Benediction

May the love of God go with you from this place.

May your hours and days show forth His praise.
